

OPUS 216 Front Yard Concert

September 12, 2020 10:30–11:30 am

Ben Franklin Community Garden

1905 Spring Rd., Cleveland 44109 (behind the school)

Join violinist and founder/director of OPUS 216, Ariel Clayton Karas, for a Saturday morning performance in the Garden! She'll be performing a mix of Irish fiddle, jazz, and classical music with a "nature" lean.

COVID-19 Concert Guidelines: Masks are required in the Garden common area. In keeping with ODPH guidelines for social distancing, all listeners are asked to remain at least 10 feet from performers during the concert, and avoid congregating during the performance. Performers will wear masks at all times.

Photos and video are welcome! Feel free to tag us on social media (@opus216)

This performance is funded by community residents of the Old Brooklyn and Detroit Shoreway neighborhoods, and tips are welcome!
